Candidates must satisfy ALL Performance Criteria to achieve a pass in Learning Outcome 3.6

Performance Criteria 3.6

Award a tick for each point, depending on the quality of the description, relevance and accuracy.

Candidates are required to explain, using at least one example, the ways in which co-operatives have responded to a disaster, either natural or man made.

Answers may include:

SANASA Development Bank Ltd, Sri Lanka.

The Tsunami of 2004 devastated communities, killing many and ruining infra structure.

Through it all, Sri Lankans have trusted the name SANASA and the familiar blue signs that adorn its 5,000 credit unions. SANASA was there coordinating relief operations in the days following the tsunami. Six years later, Sri Lankans are back at work thanks to training and credit made possible by the SANASA Development Bank Ltd and its partnership with the Canadian Co-operative Association.

This co-operative ensured that aid was delivered to the people who needed it most and that credit was available for restructuring and stimulating industry in Sri Lanka.
